

CONCURRENT PROGRAM

Thursday 26/10/2017	ABORIGINAL LANDCARE STREAM Wonga Wetlands Field Visit	BIODIVERSITY STREAM Wirraminna EEC Field Visit	SUSTAINABLE AGRICULTURE STREAM Woomargama Station Field Visit	WATER STREAM Lake Hume Weir Field Visit
8:00: AM		Meet at AEC courtyard	Meet at AEC courtyard
8:15: AM		Marshal to buses	Marshal to buses
8:30: AM		Buses leave for Wirraminna EEC	Buses leave for Woomargama
9:00: AM	Chair – Sam Kirby , Banquet Hall Debbie Repschlager - Partnerships for Working on Country	Chair - Richard Bull Hosts - Stacey Bell/Darryl Jacob	Chair - Dale Stringer Host - Clare Cannon	Chair - Gary Rodda , Theatrette Neil Bull – Bitterns in Rice
9:30 AM	Jeanette Crew – Being an Aboriginal Landcare Coordinator	Morning tea	Morning tea	David Mitchell – Long Term Salinity Monitoring
10:00: AM		Luke Pearce – From little fish, big partnerships grow	Doris Razeng - Fighting the blackberry blues: a community-led response	Mark Bulley – Fish Habitat Network
10:15 AM	Morning tea	Emma Stone – Frog song success	Janelle Jenkins - Why 5 LLSs deliver 'Trouble with Sub'	Morning tea
10:45 AM	Workshop Joanne Lenehan – Back to grass roots: Aboriginal Landcare - for whom and by whom?	Matt Cameron – Threatened Species Squirrel Gliders LAMP project	Site tour	Workshop Siwan Lovett – The Rivers of Carbon Model
11:30 AM		Return to AEC by bus	Return to AEC by bus
11:45 AM	Lunch at AEC			Lunch at AEC
12:00 PM		Lunch at AEC	Lunch at AEC
12:45 PM	Marshal to buses			Marshal to buses

1:00 PM	Buses leave for Wonga Wetlands	Corowa District Landcare presents Climate workshop, Theatre	Mel Craig - Engaging with local blueberry farmers for increased sustainability, Banquet Hall	Buses leave for Hume Weir
1:30 PM	Chair - Curtis Reid Hosts - Wagirra Crew John Hawkins - Wonga Wetlands overview	Chairs: Mel Hillary and Dieuwer Reynders Dave Hunter - Managing threatened species in a changing climate	Angela Maier - Sustainable land management for Sydney-based rural landholders Tracey Potts – Recording oral histories	Chair – Gary Rodda Jacqui Hickey - Site tour of Hume Weir wall and brief overview of how NSW Water delivery works
2:00 PM	Small group discussions and demonstrations Presenters - Ruth Davys, Pettina Love, Wagirra Crew	Nola Hancock - Climate-ready revegetation: A guide for NRM Ian Lunt – Adapting to climate change		Water policy discussion - Lake Hume Resort Perin Davey – An in depth look at the challenges facing Australia's water landscape and the approach government agencies are taking to address them.
2:30 PM		Afternoon tea	Afternoon tea	Phillip Glyde - Murray Darling Basin Authority overview Digby Jacobs - MDBA riparian programs
3:00 PM	Afternoon tea	Josh Gilbert - Indigenous perspectives of sustainability, funding cycles and longevity	Liz Blair - Collaboration counts: what does tru collaboration look like?	Afternoon tea
3:15 PM		Linda Cavanagh - Boorowa Landcare meet Parliamentary Friends of Landcare	Guy Webb - Fungi that sequesters carbon - increasing soil carbon for a more sustainable farming future	Hilton Taylor - Commonwealth environmental water
3:30 PM	Return to AEC by bus OR enjoy the Yindyamarra Sculpture Walk on the Wagirra Trail (2.3km, easy grade). Bus will collect walkers from Kremur Rd at 5:00 PM
3:45 PM				Return to AEC by bus
4:00 PM	State/Regional meetings, adventures, retail therapy, visits, media opportunities
6:30 PM	Gala Dinner pre-dinner drinks
7:00 PM	Gala Dinner and Awards Ceremony with dancing!			